IF THESE RULES ARE NOT ADHERED TO, THE COURSE WILL BE CLOSED

CAPTAIN'S COVE GOLF COMMITTEE

RULES DURING COVID-19

During this uncertain time, we want people to be able to have a good time and be able to play golf while adhering to the Governor's Social Distancing rules.

Some people believe rules don't apply to them. There will be Marshals on the course looking for rules infractions. Below are the penalties if a Marshal sees you violating a rule:

1. Failure to wear a face mask when necessary or failure to practice Social Distancing: First offense – reminder. Second offense: You will be directed to leave the course and will be banned from playing for either 29 days or until the amenities reopen, whichever occurs first.
2. Slow play: You will be asked to pick up the pace.
3. Failure to start on the 1st hole or "jumping" on the course without a tee time: First offense: You will be directed to leave the course. Second offense: You will be directed to leave the course and will be banned from playing for either 29 days or until the amenities reopen, whichever occurs first.
4. "Ball hawking": You will be asked to stop and continue playing.
5. Alcohol on the course: You will be directed to leave the course and will be banned from playing for either 29 days or until the amenities reopen, whichever occurs first.
6. Urinating on the course: You will be directed to leave the course and will be banned from playing for either 29 days or until the amenities reopen, whichever occurs first.
